Choir&Ko is a non-audition choir open to all abilities. No experience necessary whatsoever, our main focus is the joy of singing. The beauty of a choir like this is that you can be as visible or invisible as you like.

As well as weekly sessions across Surrey and Sussex, we do performances of all shapes and sizes, singing original arrangements from the world of musical theatre, film, pop, soul and some old classics. Choir&Ko was founded by Karen O'Connor who has 30 years of experience working within the music industry as a professional singer, vocal coach and choir leader.
